

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, One of the basic aims of the Veterans of Foreign Wars as set forth in its Congressional Charter is "to foster true patriotism"; and,

Whereas, The Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen Scholarship Contests sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and its Ladies Auxiliary have proven to be effective instruments for putting these words into action; and,

Whereas, The Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen Scholarship Contests provide an opportunity for middle school and high school students to think, write, and speak up for our country for freedom and for democracy; and,

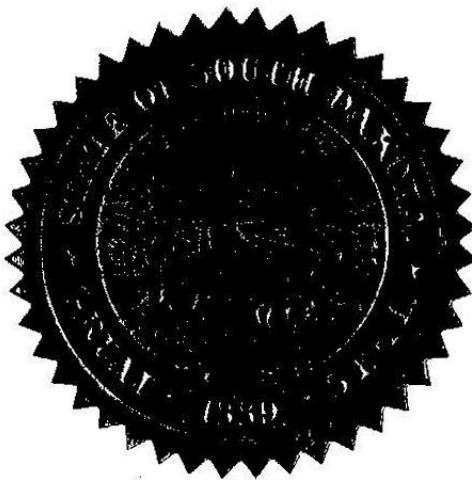

Whereas, An active, dedicated, and resourceful population is vital to the preservation of freedom; and,

Whereas, This year's themes, "Is There Pride In Serving Our Military?" and "Are You Proud Of Your Country?" focus the attention of tomorrow's leaders on democracy as a form of government "above and beyond" any other form of government, and how their guidance will preserve democracy as a way of life for the future of our Republic:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 7, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I hereby commend the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary for their sponsorship of the annual Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen Programs, and I call on all middle school and high school students to think, write, and speak up for the future of democracy as they address the themes, "Is There Pride In Serving Our Military?" and "Are You Proud Of Your Country?"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.
